From Bill - "Patsy and I ran the Seaside Half Marathon in Ventura this morning. Everything considered, the course was in pretty good shape after the storms. We did have to step carefully in a few places but all in all it was a good day for running. It was 52 degrees at the start with very mild wind and no rain. This year they added a full marathon, essentially two loops of the half. The director said the course is USTAF certified and a Boston Qualifier."

AUSTIN, TEXAS, FEBRUARY 19 - AUSTIN MARATHON: 1. Joe Thorne/Grover Beach 2:32:05. (2,670 finishers)

From MarathonGuide.com - "Former Texas Longhorns track and cross country standout Joe Thorne, who now lives in Grover Beach, California, built an early lead and although he struggled to hold his pace over the final miles, Thorne ultimately prevailed to take first-place. The victory came in a homecoming of sorts for Thorne, who spent 10 years in Austin before moving to California to take a job with LeftLane Sports, an e-commerce firm. "It's fabulous to race back here in Austin," he said. "I'm 33 now and have two kids and work full time so I'm really happy with the outcome of the race." (Joe was the 2013 winner of the SLO Marathon and has also won the SLO Half Marathon, the Strawberry Stampede, and other local races.)
